Subject: New Director of Land Development Services

James Patteson, DPWES Director, is pleased to announce the appointment of Bill Hicks as Director of Land Development Services. Mr. Hicks brings a great breadth of experience managing and leading municipal and private enterprises. Most recently, he served as the Director of Maintenance and Stormwater Management Division, DPWES. Prior to coming to Fairfax, he served as the Director of Public Works for the City of Falls Church, a Water Resource Planner for the Northern Virginia Regional Commission, a Watershed Program Administrator for the City of Alexandria, a Project Engineer with Michael Baker Jr., Inc., and as a Project Engineer for the Peace Corps. Mr. Hicks is a licensed Professional Engineer and received his Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering from NC State and a Master's degree in Environmental Management from Duke University. Mr. Hicks will transition to his new responsibilities over the next 30 days.
